

Aisha Weaver Biography

Aisha Weaver was born into a military family in Torrejon, Spain. After several years in Spain, she and her family were relocated to Bentwaters, England and then to the High Desert California area where she still resides. She is the second of four siblings, one of whom is a fraternal twin brother. She enjoys the outdoors while camping and off-roading with her husband and two teenage boys. She is passionate about helping members of the community who are in need, especially those with behavioral health issues, homelessness, domestic violence, and other barriers to self-sufficiency.

Aisha began her career with the County of San Bernardino in 2005 as an Employment Services Specialist in the Transitional Assistance Department (TAD). While working for TAD, she assisted customers in the Barstow area to secure suitable and gainful employment with the ultimate goal of becoming self-sufficient and prosperous. In April of 2007, she promoted to the Human Resources Department as an HR Analyst Trainee where she had the opportunity to grow as an HR professional while developing her skills in recruitment, benefits administration, and classification related activities. She was recently promoted in September of 2017 to a Senior HR Analyst position. In this new assignment, she manages a team of HR Analysts who conduct recruitments and perform other employment related activities for the departments under the Human Services Agency umbrella, such as Aging and Adult Services, Behavioral Health, Children and Family Services, PreSchool Services, Public Health, etc.
