

Monica Alvarez has been a part of the high desert community for the past 10 years. She has three amazing kids and one on the way. She has worked in the medical field for the past 22 years, both on the front line and in management.

She now owns two businesses. Her first business is a medical billing service, and the second is a vocational school specializing in the medical field. "I look forward to working with the Today's Woman's Foundation. I am very passionate about participating in this foundation and helping women build and rebuild themselves. I believe human validation is extremely important in all phases of our lives." Monica's hobbies are hiking, reading, yoga and meditation.
